ORDER

This matter is before the Court upon Plaintiff's request for settlement. (Doc. #32). In his letter, Plaintiff asks the Court for a settlement because he does not "see an end result, plus [he does not] see this going to [trial]." Id. Specifically, he asks that the Court award him $3,500,000 and that he never have to go back to "Lucasville" for the remainder of his time in prison. Id.

Plaintiff's request (Doc. #32) is DENIED, as he seeks relief that he has not shown that he is entitled to at this stage in the proceedings and relief which may not be granted by a Court.

To the extent that Plaintiff is requesting referral to mediation, Plaintiff should confer with opposing counsel and file a joint motion for referral to mediation if all parties agree.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
